This copy of EDWARD FULLER "Mayflower Families in Progress" (MFIP) is not a finished product. It is a printed copy of the current status of four generations of E. FULLER research for the Five Generations Project of the Society of Mayflower Descendants. Research on these four generations, plus the fifth generation, are continuing at this time. The primary purposes of this booklet are: 1) to preserve the research, 2) to ask readers for assistance in providing the missing data, 3) to assist other Project workers, 4) to aid State Historians, and 5) to provide guides for further research.

Although some of these families may carry full primary source documentation, some do not. Therefore, the Historian General is not obligated to accept references for membership applications to the Society of Mayflower Descendants based on the contents of this booklet.

We welcome any additions and/or corrections which are supported by primary source documentation. Any such changes should be mailed to:

EDWARD FULLER

FIRST GENERATION

1 EDWARD¹ FULLER, perhaps bp. Parish of Redenhall, co. Norfolk, England 4 Sept. 1575; d. Plymouth shortly aft. 11 Jan. 1620/1; possibly son of Robert & ?Frances (-----) Fuller.

He m. prob. England -----, who d. Plymouth soon aft. 11 Jan. 1620/1.

It has recently been discovered that Edward and his unnamed wife were among the English Separatists living in Leiden, Holland.

Children (FULLER) b. prob. England:

- 2 i MATTHEW² presumably remained in England until ca. 1640.
- 3 ii SAMUEL came on the MAYFLOWER with his parents.

SECOND GENERATION

2 MATTHEW² FULLER (Edward¹) b. prob. England bef. 1610; d. Barnstable Co. bet. 25 July 1678 and 22 Aug. 1678 (date of inventory).

He m. presumably in England, FRANCES -----, who was living 30 Oct. 1678 when she swore to his inventory. As Frances was Matthew's sole executrix, it is likely that she was the mother of at least some of Matthew's children.

Matthew Fuller arrived in Plymouth bef. 26 Oct. 1640 when he sold land lately purchased of John Gregory. He probably brought his wife Frances and children born in England with him. He was propounded a freeman in 1642, served as a jurymen, and was assigned ten acres of land near Thurston Clark. In 1643 he was chosen sergeant in the newly established "military discipline." He was called of Plymouth in a deed of gift of two acres on 16 March 1648/9 from Samuel Fuller.

Exactly when he moved to Barnstable is unknown, but on 5 Oct. 1652 the Court approved his election as lieutenant of the Barnstable militia. He was admitted a freeman on 7 June 1653, and that year served as deputy from Barnstable to the Plymouth Court. On 20 June 1654 he was appointed lieutenant, under Capt. Myles Standish, of a 50-man quota to fight against the Dutch at Monhatoes (New York), but receipt of news of peace between England and Holland on 23 June 1654 made the expedition unnecessary. On 2 Oct. 1658 he was elected a member of the Council of War, and in 1671 became its chairman. On 17 Dec. 1673 he was appointed Surgeon General of the Colony troops; he also served as captain of the Plymouth Colony forces during King Philip's War.

He was one of the first regular physicians to settle at Barnstable. He took a public stand on the side of the unpopular Quakers and received a fine for it. He lived in the northwest corner of Barnstable at Scroton Neck, but also owned land in Falmouth and Middleboro which had been granted to him by the Colony for distinguished service. He died a wealthy man for the times.

3 SAMUEL² FULLER (Edward¹) b. prob. England ca. 1608; d. Barnstable 31 Oct. 1683.

He m. Scituate 8 April 1635 JANE LOTHROP bp. Edgerton, co. Kent, England 29 Sept. 1614; d. bef. her husband; dau. of the Rev. John and Hannah (Howes) Lothrop, his first wife. The will of John Lothrop, pastor of the Church of Christ at Barnstable, dated 10 Aug. 1653, names daughter Jane as already having her portion.

After being left an orphan shortly after arriving in Plymouth on the MAYFLOWER, Samuel was brought up by his uncle, Dr. Samuel Fuller, the physician of the Pilgrims. Samuel was admitted a freeman in Plymouth Colony in 1634, moved to Scituate in 1635 where he built a house; he joined the Scituate church on 7 Nov. 1636; and was elected constable there in 1641. Sometime later he moved to Barnstable, to which his father-in-law had moved in 1638. Samuel was the only MAYFLOWER passenger to settle permanently in Barnstable, and was one of the last surviving MAYFLOWER passengers.

The will of Samuel Fuller Sr. of Barnstable, dated 29 Oct. 1683 and exhibited 5 June 1684, names eldest son Samuel, son John, daughters Elizabeth Tayler, Hannah Bonham, Mary Williams and Sarah Crowe, and his Indian, Joell (bequeathed to son John); sons Samuel and John as executors.

THIRD GENERATION

4 SAMUEL³ FULLER (Matthew², Edward¹) b. prob. England ca. 1630;
d. Rehoboth 26 March 1675/6.

He m. MARY -----, living 7 Aug. 1696 (mentioned in will of son Matthias).

Samuel lived in Barnstable. He was a lieutenant when killed at Rehoboth during King Philip's War.

The will of "Lieft Samuel Fullers the son of Captaine Matthew Fuller deceased," dated 2 Aug. 1675 and sworn on 7 June 1676 and 3 July 1676, names wife Mary, eldest son Thomas (not yet 21), other sons Jabez, Timothy and Matthias, daughters Abigail and Anne; friends Elder John Chipman and Thomas Huckens with wife Mary to be joint executors. The inventory was attested by Mary relict of Lt. Fuller and mentions "more due for his service to the country" 3 June 1676. On 8 June 1676 Mary the wife of Lt. Samuel Fuller late deceased claimed to be with child, and the Court ordered that the child should have an equal portion of the estate with the younger children, and that if the child were to live, Mary was to have a "competency allowed her for and toward bringing up of the said Child out of the Intire estate of the said Liefteutenant Fuller."*

Children (FULLER) prob. b. Barnstable:

- 13 i THOMAS⁴ b. after 1654
- 14 ii JABEZ b. ca. 1663
- 15 iii ANNE b. 1669
- 16 iv TIMOTHY b. ca. 1670

v MATTHIAS b. ca. 1672; d. unm. bef. 6 May 1697. The will of Mathias Fuller of Barnstable "being Designed for and upon the Counterys Cervice against the French and Indian Enemies," dated Boston 7 Aug. 1696, probated 28 May 1697, mentions brother Timothy Fuller of Haddam, grandfather Matthew Fuller late of Barnstable deceased, honored mother (not named), and "Rest of my Brothers and Sisters." Inv. taken 6 May 1697.

vi ABIGAIL b. ca. 1674; said to have m. Israel Stowell of Hingham but no primary source has been found for this marriage.

17 vii SAMUEL b. 15 Aug. 1676 posthumously

*An inventory taken in Aug. 1676, sworn by wife Mary in Nov. of Samuel Fuller (of Rehoboth dec.), refers to another Samuel who d. Rehoboth 15 Aug. 1676, son of Robert Fuller. On 7 June 1677 Robert Fuller, Nicholas Iyde Sr., and Mary Muller were appointed admin. of the estate of this Samuel Fuller late of Rehoboth dec.; and on 3 July 1677 letters of admin. were issued to Robert Fuller of Rehoboth and Nicholas Iyde Sr. on this estate. Eldest son Thomas could have been born well after 1654 and would seem to be by the dates of the other children and the fact he did not marry until 1680. This could perhaps indicate that Samuel did not marry until after 1655 and therefore his birthdate may be too early. Thomas does not appear in PCR or any record before his mar. in 1680, an indication of a younger man.

5 MARY³ FULLER (Matthew², Edward¹) b. prob. England after 1630; d. Barnstable after 11 May 1691.*

She m. Plymouth 17 April 1650 RALPH JONES who d. Barnstable bet. 11 May 1691 and 20 April 1692. In Plymouth in 1643, he was one of the Quakers persecuted early in Barnstable.

The will of Ralph Jones of Barnstable "being aged" is dated the "11th of 3rd month (May) 1691" and proved 20 April 1692. In it he asked to be buried at the Quaker burying place in Sandwich, and left money to the Quakers. He mentioned his wife (unnamed), his father Fuller, sons Shubael, Jedidiah, Ralph, Samuel, Matthew, John and Ephraim (the last not yet 21), and daughters Mercy, Mary and Hittable; son Shubael was named executor. Since the will appears not to name all his children in chronological order, the order below is uncertain.

Children (JONES) b. Barnstable:

- 18 i MATTHEW⁴
ii SHUBAEL b. 27 Aug. 1654; named father's exec. in 1692; living Sandwich.
19 iii JEDEDIAH b. 4 Jan. 1656(/7)

- 20 iv JOHN b. 14 Aug. 1659
 - v MERCY b. 14 Nov. 1666; living 1691; n.f.r.
- 21 vi RALPH b. 1 Oct. 1669
- 22 vii SAMUEL
 - viii EPHRAIM b. after 1670
 - ix MARY living 1691; n.f.r.
 - x MEHITABLE living 1691; poss. the Mehitable Jones who was mother of Hannah, b. Sandwich 12 April 1696, reputed dau. of Gideon Gifford.

*NOTE: As Ralph Jones' will does not name his wife but only refers to her as "wife" it cannot be certain who the wife was at that time.

Matthew is here listed as eldest but this is only tentative. The order of names in the will does not agree with John's being 10 years older than Ralph.

6 ELIZABETH³ FULLER (Matthew², Edward¹) b. prob. England after 1630; d. prob. E. Haddam or Colchester CT after 7 March 1714/15.

She m. Barnstable 22 April 1652 MOSES ROWLEY, prob. b. bef. 1630, poss. in England; d. E. Haddam CT bet. 16 Aug. 1704 and 15 June 1705; son of Henry and -----* (Palmer) Rowley.

The first mention of Moses in Plymouth Colony is in the will of William Palmer of Duxbury, dated 7 Nov. 1637. Moses was a freeman in Barnstable in 1657, where presumably all his children were born.

In March 1661/2 Thomas Hinckley, town clerk of Barnstable, sent to the Secretary of Plymouth Colony, the data on the marriage of Moses Rowley to Elizabeth Fuller and the births of Mary, Moses, the unnamed child who d. at birth, Shuball and Mehittable. It is strange he did not mention the purported iv dau. who was supposed to be living at that time. He apparently recorded the same data in the Barnstable Town Records before that time. Was there an oversight on his part or of the father in reporting same or is this a non-existent child? Nathan is not in list of children in VR.

Inventory was taken of the estate of Moses Rowley 15 June 1705. Moses' will was dated at E. Haddam CT 16 Aug. 1704 and proved 8 March 1705/6; he named sons Moses and Matthew, daughter Mehetabell Fuller, son John Fuller, "the rest of my children" and mentions his wife (unnamed); sons Moses and John Fuller were to be executors.

Children (ROWLEY) b. Barnstable:

- 23 i MARY⁴ b. 20 March 1653
- 24 ii MOSES b. 10 Nov. 1654
 - iii child b. and d. 15 Aug. 1656
 - iv daughter b. ca. 1657; d. 15 Nov. 1682 ae ca 25 "dafter of Moses Rowley, Sern'r."
- 25 v SHUBAEL (twin) b. 11 Jan. 1660(/1)

vi MEHITABLE (twin) b. 11 Jan. 1660(/1); m. JOHN³ FULLER (see #12) vii SARAH b. 16 Sept. 1662; living E. Haddam in 1700; n.f.r.

26 viii NATHAN b. ca. 1664

27 ix AARON b. 1 May 1666

x JOHN b. 22 Oct. 1667. No evidence found to substantiate claim that John d. Stafford Co. VA.

xi MATTHEW m. JOANNA -----; lived E. Haddam(Proof?)

References: MD 2:147(Wm. Palmer's will); 12:153(m. Moses, Eliz.; b. ch. Mary, Moses, child, Shubael, Mehitable, Sarah, Aaron, John); 18:203(m.; b. ch. Mary, Moses, child, Shubael, Mehitable). *There is no evidence that Henry Rowley's first wife was named Sarah. It is almost certain that she was dau. of William Palmer. The most nearly definitive account is TAG 32:38-45.

Where is the d. of iv dau. recorded? It is not in the PCR or Barnstable VR.

Further evidence is required to prove that Nathan was a son of Moses and Elizabeth (Fuller) Rowley.

7 JOHN³ FULLER (Matthew², Edward¹) b. Plymouth after 1640; d. Barnstable bef. 16 July 1691.

He m. (1) BETHIA ----- (who has not been identified); d. bef. 24 March 1686/7.

He m. (2) Plymouth 24 March 1686/7 HANNAH MORTON, b. Plymouth 1659 or a little later; d. Oct. 1738; dau. of John Morton of Plymouth and Middleborough and perhaps by his wife Lettice, who was apparently Lettice Handford, widow of Edward Foster. (Wakefield; Plymouth Co. Marr. p. 32). She m. (2) Plymouth 9 Dec. 1695, as his second wife, Capt. John Lothrop of Barnstable, and had several more children. The will of John Lothrop, dated 9 March 1726/7, proved 9 Feb. 1727/8, names wife Hannah and others. (Barnstable Co. PR 4:407). According to the LO-LATHROP GEN p. 52, Hannah (Morton) (Fuller) Lathrop wrote her will in 1738. The nuncupative will of John Morton Sr. (late of Middleborough deceased), ratified by the Court 29 Oct. 1673, names wife Lettice and dau. Hannah.

On 16 July 1691 inventory was taken of the estate of John Fuller, chirurgeon. His estate was settled upon his widow, son and daughters on 20 Oct. 1691. Daughter Lydia Dimmock, wife of Joseph Dimmock, received her share of her father John's estate from her guardian, and also cloth from her mother-in-law Hannah Lothrop alias Fuller, on 24 May 1699 and on 9 May 1700. The final settlement of the estate of John Fuller late of Barnstable on 16 Nov. 1713 names his widow, Hannah Lothrop, only son John, eldest daughter Lydia by John's first wife, and youngest daughters Bethia Lothrop and Reliance Paine.

Children (FULLER) b. Barnstable, first by Bethia, rest by Lydia:

- 28 i LYDIA⁴ b. ca. 1675
- 29 ii BETHIA b. Dec. 1687
- 30 iii JOHN b. Oct. 1689
- 31 iv RELIANCE b. 8 Sept. 1691

8 HANNAH³ FULLER (Samuel², Edward¹) b. Scituate ca. 1636; d. Piscataway NJ after 23 Aug. 1686, when she posted bond as executrix of the will of her husband with Edward Slater as Fellow Bondsman.

She m. Barnstable 1 Jan. 1658 NICHOLAS BONHAM,* b. England ca. 1630; d. Piscataway 20 July 1684.

They removed from Barnstable to Piscataway NJ about 1672, where he signed the "Oath of Allegiance" that year. In 1681 he served as a sergeant.

The will of Nicholas Bonham of Piscataway was drawn 6 Feb. 1683/4 and proved 18 Dec. 1684; his wife Hannah and son Hezekiah were named executors; mention was made of other children (not named); witnesses included Edmund Slater and Isaac Smalley.

*NOTE: Nicholas Bonham has been called a son of George Bonham of Plymouth. George Bonham d. April 1704 "being upward of 85 years of age" (MD 16:64) or "being about 95 years of age (PLYMOUTH CH REC 1:199). If we accept the younger age and conclude that George was born about 1614, the chronology is very tight, for both George and his putative son Nicholas would have had to marry at the age of 19. If George lived to be 90 or older, the chronology becomes considerably more likely. But even thought the asserted relationship is chronologically possible, no evidence for it, besides surname identity, has been seen.

No evidence has been found to support Monette's suggestion of a son Nicholas.

9 SAMUEL³ FULLER (Samuel², Edward¹) bp. Scituate 11 Feb. 1637/8; d. Barnstable bef. 28 Dec. 1691.

He m. prob. Barnstable ca. 1657/8 ANNE FULLER, his first cousin, b. Plymouth after 1640; d. Barnstable bef. 30 Dec. 1691; dau. of Matthew Fuller (see #2). "Daughter Anne Fuller the now wife of Samuel Fuller" received a legacy from her father in 1678, and "son-in-law Samuel Fuller Junr" was also remembered by Matthew.

Little is known of Samuel, though he appears to have spent his life in Barnstable. Inventory of the estate of Samuel Fuller late of Barnstable was taken 28 Dec. 1691; it included no real estate. Two days later his sons Matthew, Barnabas, Joseph and Benjamin quitclaimed to their sisters "Desire Fuller and Sarah Fuller Daughters of sd deceased of all their deceased mother's Apparel."

He m. Barnstable ca. 1678 his cousin MEHITABLE ROWLEY, b. Barnstable 11 Jan. 1660; d. E. Haddam 1732; dau. of Moses Sr. and Elizabeth (Fuller) Rowley (#6) of Haddam, a granddaughter of Pilgrim Edward Fuller. Will of Moses Rowley Sr. of Haddam names daughter Mehetabell Fuller and son John Fuller.

This John Fuller was known as "Little John Fuller" to avoid confusion with his cousin Dr. John Fuller (#7). John and his family moved to E. Haddam CT about 1694.

The will of John Fuller Sr. of Haddam, dated 28 Feb. 1725/6, proved 21 April 1726, mentions his wife (unnamed); sons Thomas, Samuel, Shubael, Edward, John, Joseph and Benjamin; and daughters Thankfull, Elizabeth and Mehitabel; sons Thomas and John named executors.

*Two other daughters have been claimed: Deborah b. ca. 1689 m. John Rowley; and Anne Fuller b. ca. 1703/4 m. Jonathan Rowley. Neither is named in John Fuller's will nor were any IRs found to indicate a daughter's portion turned over to her husband. However, their children have Edward Fuller ancestry, since John & Jonathan Rowley were both sons of Moses Rowley (see #24).

14 JABEZ⁴ FULLER (Samuel³, Matthew², Edward¹) b. Barnstable ca. 1663; d. Middleboro bef. 15 Sept. 1711 (inventory).

He m. Sandwich ca. 1686 MARY HALLETT, living 11 May 1721; dau. of Joseph and Elizabeth (Gorham) Hallett, and great granddau. of Pilgrim John Howland.

Jabez was a large landholder in Barnstable and later in Middleboro.

The inventory of the estate of Jabez Fuller "late of Middlebury deceased" was taken 15 Sept. 1711. On 20 June 1712 Mary Fuller widow was bonded as administratrix of her husband Jabez, and was made guardian (with Samuel Fuller as surety) of son Ebenezer under 5 yrs., Lois under 9, Mary about 13, and Mercy over 14. A division of the estate of Jabez Fuller, dated 20 June 1712, names eldest son Samuel, second son Jonathan, third son Ebenezer, eldest daughter Marcy, second daughter Mary, youngest daughter Lois. In a settlement filed in Barnstable 17 Feb. 1720/1, the land of Jabez Fuller was settled on Jabez Wood and Marcy his wife, one of the daughters; widow Mary Fuller was administratrix; Jonathan was called "eldest son now surviving"; settlement was made to sons Jonathan and Ebenezer, and daughters Lois Fuller and Mary Barse. A receipt to administratrix Mary Fuller was signed 11 May 1721 by Jabez and Marcy Wood for their portion in the estates of their deceased father Jabez Fuller, and deceased brother Samuel Fuller.

*No evidence was found to substantiate claims for a dau. Hannah.

NOTE: In 1946 Mary Lovering Holman stated that Mary (Hallett) Fuller m. (2) 2 Dec. 1720 Capt. Joseph Vaughn "both of Middleboro"; in THE SAMUEL FULLER FAMILY (see MF 1:54) we are told that Capt. Joseph m. (2) Mercy (Nelson) Fuller, widow of John³ (Samuel²). Records in the probate offices of both Barnstable and Plymouth Cos. were consulted. On 17 Feb. 1720/1 the final settlement of Jabez Fuller's estate was made in Barnstable "at the request and desire of the widow Mary Fuller." On 11 May 1721 in Plymouth Co. Jabez and Mercy (Fuller) Wood receipted to "Mary Fuller, administrator on the estate of Jabez Fuller late of Middleboro" for their share of the estates of Mercy (Fuller) Wood's father and brother Samuel. The two records wherein Jabez's widow was still called "Mary Fuller" months after the Fuller-Vaughn marriage, clearly indicate that Mary (Hallett) Fuller did not marry Joseph Vaughn and that Capt. Joseph's second wife must indeed have been Mercy (Nelson) Fuller, the widow of John Fuller.

18 MATTHEW JONES⁴ (Mary³ Fuller, Matthew², Edward¹) b. Barnstable, date unknown; d. there bet. 1 June and 1 Aug. 1749.

He m. Barnstable 14 Jan. 1694, perhaps as second wife, MERCY GOODSPEED, b. Barnstable 18 Feb. 1669; dau. of John and Experience (Holloway) Goodspeed.

(Two trains of thought have been applied to this marriage: either Mercy is the second wife or the recorded date of 1694 should actually be 1684. The gap between the second and third child could indicate the death of a first wife. See Otis Barnstable Fam 2:110-11; NEHGR 3:136 for further discussion.)

Matthew is the 5th mentioned son in his father's will but the 6th mentioned son is known to be 10 years older than the 4th mentioned son, so the order of birth is not certain. Matthew is called by many the oldest, but this is not certain.

Matthew's will, dated 1 June 1749, proved 1 Aug. 1749, mentions his wife Mary (third wife?) and all his children by name except Josiah. His son-in-law Reuben Maggs (Meigs) named executor.

23 MARY ROWLEY⁴ (Elizabeth³ Fuller, Matthew², Edward¹) b. Barnstable 20 March 1653; d. prob. Falmouth date unknown.

She m. Falmouth 7 Jan. 1675/6 JOHN WEEKS, b. prob. Edgartown ca. 1655; d. Falmouth bef. 7 Aug. 1730; perhaps son of William Weeks.

John Weeks was probably a carpenter since the inventory of his estate at Falmouth, taken 17 Aug. 1730, included many tools. Banks claims John was from Edgartown and later resided in Falmouth, and that he was a missionary to the Indians.

William and Ebenezer Weeks of Falmouth were appointed administrators of the estate of Mr. John Weeks late of Falmouth, yeoman deceased, on 7 Aug. 1730. Both swore to the inventory and in June 1731 they reported finding more of "our deceased father's estate."

27 AARON ROWLEY⁴ (Elizabeth³ Fuller, Matthew², Edward¹) b. Barnstable 1 May 1666; d. Falmouth bef. 9 June 1743.

He m. Falmouth 7 March 1690 MAREY/MARY WEEKS, b. possibly Falmouth 16 Jan. 1669/70; living 4 Aug. 1743; possibly dau. of William and Mercy (Robinson) Weeks. (In the marr. rec. and b. of their children, the mother is called "Marey"—could this poss. be Marcy? Examination of the original Falmouth VR is necessary to determine whether "Marey" in the printed record of marriage and births of her children is a misreading of Marcy.) Division of the estate of William Weeks of Falmouth includes no dau. Mary.

Aaron's will was drawn Falmouth 24 June 1730 but not probated until 9 June 1743. It mentions wife Mary, dau. Mary Weeks, sons Aaron, Timothy and Elnathan; wife Mary and son Aaron executors. The widow Mary is mentioned in settlement of 4 Aug. 1743. (Absence of any mention of dau. Mercy implies she was already dec., hence not the Marcy who, as claimed, m. Samuel Stone and moved to Guilford CT.)

Aaron Rowley and wife Mary were admitted to the West Barnstable Church on 6 May 1705. Four children were baptised to "Mary wife of Aaron Rowley" there on 2 Sept. 1705: Aaron, Timothy, Elnathan and Mary. This may be an indication that Mercy and Elizabeth died prior to this date. Neither were included in their father's 1730 will.

In Samuel Walker's will, John is referred to as Captain and also as deceased. John m. (1) Martha Martin who d. 13 Nov. 1694 by whom he had Henry, Lucinda, Mary, John, Sarah, Henry, Mary, John and Priscilla.

The will of widow Sarah Bunn of Piscataway, dated 5 Sept. 1742, proved 16 Sept. 1742, names children of her brother Henry Langstaffe; children of her brother John Langstaffe; and children of her sister Priscilla Sutton by Joseph Sutton; executors included her brother John Langstaffe.

John Langstaff is mentioned in Sept. 1686 as of Piscataway; in the will of John Martin of Piscataway dated 17 March 1687/8, he is appointed among overseers. These early dates make it seem likely that he was older at the time of his 1718 disposition than the 50 recorded.

No known children of Priscilla and John Langstaff.
